

CAN ANYTHING REALLY BE DONE?

FOR the fourth and 'hopefully, final time', the natural resources and environment minister is meeting the Pahang menteri besar to resolve the thorny bauxite issue. Observers may be forgiven for not holding their breath. An environmental NGO even says 'everything has gone haywire'.

