

NEW STRAITS TIMES

Celebrating 170 years with the Nation. Inspired by Greatness

MORE DIRT UNCOVERED

ILLEGAL bauxite mines in Pahang outnumber the legal ones by an astonishing ratio of six to one. And, the brazen operators are getting help from individuals who buy the illicit stock for export. That they are able to continue operations for so long can be attributed to either the 'state government's lackadaisical attitude or its agencies choosing to close an eye'.

→ REPORT BY FARRAH NAZ KARIM AND ALIZA SHAH ON PAGE 2
→ EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH MACC'S INVESTIGATIONS CHIEF DATUK AZAM BAKI ON PAGE 3; SEE ALSO PAGE 4

Don't mess with these beauties

REPORT ON PAGE 20

EXCLUSIVE

Malaysian suicide bombers kill more than 30

→ REPORT BY ALIZA SHAH ON PAGE 5